

For as long as I can recall, television was required to grant equal time to opposing political views. This is a cornerstone of democratic broadcasting. Sinclair is a disgrace in a democratic society.

Airing blatantly one-sided mis-representation of a candidate is illegal, isn't it?

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.